On 10-17-11 at 2:06 A.M., the Washington Township Police Department was dispatched to the TGI Friday's located on the Black Horse Pike, Turnersville, N.J., for a reported robbery attempt. The responding officers were met by an employee of the business who advised that she was approached from behind by the suspect and a trash bag was placed over her head. The employee further advised that the suspect was armed with a revolver and had a ski mask covering his face. The employee engaged in a struggle with the suspect and after a short period of time she was able to free herself and lock herself in an office. The suspect then fled the scene in an unknown direction. A search of the area by responding officers failed to locate the whereabouts of the suspect. The following is a description of the suspect:

- White male, wearing a yellow t-shirt, gray colored sweat pants, socks covering his hands, a black and yellow colored ski mask and carrying a silver colored revolver.
