Incident Narrative

On 10-17-11 at 4:45 A.M. and the Washington Township Police Department was contacted and advised of a burglary and robbery that had just occurred at a residence on Fomalhaut Ave., Sewell, N.J. The victim in this investigation advised officers that two (2) male suspects broke out the glass to a rear sliding door and entered her residence. Once inside the two suspects demanded the victim open up a safe and when the victim refused the suspects fled the residence. The suspects were reported to be armed with handguns at the time of this incident. The suspects fled the scene on foot and were not located. The following is a description of the two suspects in this investigation:

- White male, 5'5"-5'6" tall, thin to medium build, wearing a black colored hoody, a black colored neoprene face mask and armed with a small black colored handgun.
- Black male, 20's to 30's in age, 5'8" – 6'2" tall and weighing approximately 175 lbs.

This investigation is currently on-going and anyone with information is asked to contact Det. Robert Stokley of the Washington Township Police Department Investigative Division at 856-589-0330.
