Incident Narrative

On 10-14-11 at approximately 9:53 A.M., the Gloucester County Communications Center received a report of a white male subject in front of a residence on Egg Harbor Road pointing a long rifle at the house. Officers responded to the area and learned that the suspect had entered a residence on Egg Harbor Rd., Sewell, N.J., and a perimeter was established around the house. A rifle was observed hanging on the front porch railing to the residence while officers were outside. A phone call was placed to the residence and the occupants were ordered to exit the residence. After a brief period of time the occupants to the residence exited and a suspect identified as Joseph Maiellano Jr., was taken into custody. The long rifle that was located on the front porch was actually an air soft rifle. Egg Harbor Road was shut down for several minutes while the occupants of the residence were exiting and taken into custody.

Joseph Maiellano Jr., was charged with disorderly conduct and released on a summons pending court.
