Incident Narrative

On Friday, March 19, 2010, at approximately 1813 hours, a pedestrian motor vehicle crash occurred within the parking lot of Birches Apartments located at 195 Fries Mill Road. A 1993 Mazda Protégé was traveling to the west, within the parking lot of Birches Apartment, when a male pedestrian jumped onto the hood of the vehicle while still in motion. The vehicle came to a stop; at which time the pedestrian slid off the front hood of the vehicle and contacted the asphalt ground.

The operator, of the Mazda Protégé, was wearing her seatbelt and was uninjured. The pedestrian sustained a closed head injury and was transported, via South-Star Medical Helicopter, to Cooper Trauma Center of Camden, New Jersey. The pedestrian is currently listed in critical condition.

Charges are currently pending further investigation.

If additional information is needed please contact the Public Information Officer, Deputy Chief John Dalesandro.

March 24, 2010 Update: As a result of this motor vehicle crash the involved pedestrian died due to his injuries.
