Incident Narrative

On Monday April 19, 2010 at approximately 11 p.m. the Washington Township Police responded to the Canterbury Mews development for a report of a vehicle burglary in progress. As the officers approached the area on foot, a suspect matching the description provided, later identified as Shane McGoldrick, began running from the officers. After a brief foot pursuit the suspect was apprehended. During the arrest several of the stolen items were found in McGoldrick's possession. The recovered stolen property was returned to the rightful owners that evening. The suspect was remanded to the Gloucester County Jail Bail in default of $7,500 full cash bail.
