Incident Narrative

On Tuesday April 27, 2010 the Washington Township Police responded to the Surrey Lake development for a report of a house burglary in progress at 917 am. The homeowner returned home and encountered the suspect inside the residence when the suspect then fled on foot. Police established a perimeter and a police K-9 Team tracked the suspect for approximately two hours through a heavily wooded area. The suspect was eventually apprehended following a brief foot pursuit which ended in the Wedgwood Forest section of the Township. The suspect was remanded to the Gloucester County Jail Bail in default of 15,000 full cash bail.
