Incident Narrative

On February 27, 2011 at 10:35 A.M. two black males wearing ski masks entered the Cash For Gold store located at 5501 S-3 Black Horse Pike, Turnersville, New Jersey. The two suspects then displayed handguns and ordered the employee to the back room of the store. The employee was forced to open a safe and turn over an undisclosed amount of currency. The two subjects then fled the store on foot and a track was conducted by Washington Township Police Department K-9 Officer Michael Conti and his partner "Bach". As of this time the suspects have not been located and this incident is currently under investigation by the Washington Township Police Department Investigative Division. Anyone with information on this crime is encouraged to contact Det. Lisa Frattali at 856-589-0330.
