Incident Narrative

The Washington Township Police Department is investigating numerous acts of criminal mischief involving the slashing of motor vehicle tires. Numerous vehicles had tires slashed on Lupus Lane, Halo Drive, Draco Drive, Whipple Way and Plumtree Lane on November 27, 2011. Two or three males, wearing dark hoodies were seen running from the scene in the area of Whipple Way after the incident. Residents are asked to be alert for suspicious activity and to call the Washington Township Police Department at 856-256-1212 if they see any unusual activity in their neighborhood. The community plays a vital role in crime prevention and can assist the police department in reporting suspicious activity.
