Incident Narrative

On May 02, 2011 at approximately 12:30 P.M. a burglary occurred at a residence located on Bunker Hill Rd., Sewell, NJ 08080. The suspect, later identified as Ryan A. Mitchell went to the front door to the residence and kicked it in to gain entry. The suspect then removed several items from the residence and fled the area. A witness in the area provided the Washington Township Police Department with information that helped identify the vehicle that was used by the suspect during the burglary. The investigation progressed as a result of this information and Mr. Mitchell was identified as the suspect in this incident. He was subsequently charged with burglary, theft and criminal mischief to the residence and he is currently being held in the Gloucester County Jail.
