Incident Narrative

On 12-17-10 the Washington Township Police Department responded to a large disturbance at the Hollydell Ice Arena. During the course of the disturbance a subject detonated a pyrotechnic device (smoke bomb) in the lobby while it was occupied with approximately 300 people. As a result of further investigation by the Washington Township Police Department Investigative Division a 16 year old juvenile from Monroe Twp., New Jersey has confessed to detonating the device in the lobby. He was charged on January 13, 2011 as a juvenile with Recklessly Creating a Risk of Widespread Injury (2C:17-2c) and released into the custody of his parents.
