Incident Narrative

On May 20, 2011 at approximately 11:10 P.M. this agency received a report of a home invasion robbery that had just occurred at a residence located on Rodgers Place, Turnersville, N.J. The victims in this investigation reported that three (3) unknown male subjects entered the residence through a basement window and forced them into an upstairs bathroom. The suspects were reported to be armed with semi-automatic weapons and had their faces concealed with masks at the time. The suspects demanded money from the victims believing they had brought currency home from a business they own. One of the victims resisted the demands and he was struck in the head with a handgun causing a laceration. The suspects then fled the residence after taking currency and jewelry. The victims exited the bathroom after the suspects fled and contacted the police department. The injured victim was taken to Kennedy Hospital for the laceration to his head and treated. This investigation is currently on-going and Det. Leo DiPietro is handling the investigation. The following is the description of the suspects involved:
