Incident Narrative

In response to numerous complaints of noise, trespassing and safety concerns by all terrain vehicles/motorcycles the track of land located between Watson Dr. and American Blvd. is no longer accessible to the public. This area has been marked with trespassing signs and concrete barriers have been installed to prevent motorcycles and all terrain vehicles from accessing this property. This property is located behind the Target Store on S.H. 42, Turnersville, New Jersey and encompasses the rear of the Atlantic City Electric property off of Hurffville-Crosskeys Rd., the rear of the Virtua Healthcare Facility and the MUA Water Tower on Tuckahoe Rd.

Officers have been issuing warning letters since March 18, 2011 for violations at this location. As of March 27, 2011 officers will be enforcing this no trespassing area and violators will be charged accordingly. Enforcement action will be taken for anyone found on this property and any motorcycle or other off road vehicle will be impounded. We are requesting the public's assistance and cooperation with this quality of life issue.
