Incident Narrative

On February 13, 2010 at 2030, the Washington Township Police Department was contacted by detectives from the Philadelphia Police Department concerning a wanted person who may be in Washington Township. The subject was wanted in connection with a shooting that had occurred in Philadelphia and was believed to be armed and dangerous. Officers responded to a residence where the subject was believed to be and set up a perimeter around the residence. The Gloucester County SWAT team was activated in order to facilitate the high risk arrest. The SWAT team was deployed and SWAT team negotiators were able to make contact with the wanted subject and convince him to surrender. The arrest was made without incident. The subject was committed to the Gloucester County Jail without bail, pending rendition to Pennsylvania.
