Incident Narrative

On June 22 at 1212, a motorist drove her vehicle through the front windows and doors of the TD Bank, located at Ganttown and Hurffville Cross Keys Roads. The vehicle continued through the bank lobby, stopping at the teller's counter, after damaging windows and counters inside the bank. An 8 year old boy, who was inside the bank with his mother, suffered minor injuries and was treated at the scene and released. No other injuries occurred. The bank had to be closed for several hours after the crash while glass and debris were cleaned up and damage repaired. The crash is under investigation by Cpl. Vince Fulginiti of the Washington Township Police Department.
