Incident Narrative

On Friday 10-02-2009 at approx. 2:00 p.m. following several weeks of investigation, the Washington Township Police arrested and charged Charles Seccia of Sewell, N.J. with eight (8) counts of harassment and one (1) count of lewdness. Seccia would sit in his vehicle at various store parking lots throughout the area and wait for female drivers to exit their vehicle and enter the store. Seccia would then place a written note on the unoccupied vehicle and/or place loose change under the car; the partial motive was to have the female victim check beneath the vehicle or pick up the loose change. Seccia never directly approached or attempted physical harm to any of the victims.
