Incident Narrative

During the month of January 2011 and February 2011 this agency has experienced several residential burglaries throughout the township. These burglaries are occurring during the daytime hours and involved forced entry to the front doors of the residences. It appears that the suspects (s) are knocking on the door first in an effort to see if anyone is home prior to breaking into the residences. We are requesting the public's assistance in this matter by contacting the Washington Township Police Department at (856) 256-1212 or 911 if they observe anything suspicious in their neighborhood. Should someone knock on the front door of your residence and not have a legitimate explanation for being there, we are requesting that you contact us so that we may investigate it further. We believe that the assistance of the public as an extra set of eyes and ears will be of great value in solving this community problem. Should you have any information you wish to provide you can contact Det. Timothy Breen of the Washington Township Police Department Investigative Division at 856-589-0330.
